Vectorial form of Ekeland's Variational Principle with applications to vector equilibrium problems

Gábor Kassay

23.05.2019

Abstract

We first derive an Ekeland type variational principle for vector-valued bifunctions without assuming the demanding triangular inequality for bifunctions. Then, by using such variational principle, we derive some existence results for solutions of vector equilibrium problems and vector quasi-equilibrium problems.