A class of Hamilton-Jacobi equations on Banach-Finsler manifolds

Juan Luis Rodenas

10.03.2016

Abstract

The concept of subdifferentiability is studied in the context of $C^1$ Finsler manifolds (modeled on a Banach space with a Lipschitz $C^1$ bump function). A class of Hamilton-Jacobi equations defined on $C^1$ Finsler manifolds is studied and several results related to the existence and uniqueness of viscosity solutions are obtained.

*PhD student, University of Madrid, Spain