Minimal convex decompositions by maximal convex subsets

Cornel PINTEA

Abstract

We will focus on convex decompositions of the domains in $\mathbb{R}^n$ by using the smallest possible number of (maximal) convex subsets. Such decompositions are used to prove several results on the convex Lusternik-Schnirelmann category.