

On a special class of multicriteria optimization problems

Nicolae Popovici

31.10.2013

Abstract

We study the structure of the efficient sets of certain multicriteria optimization problems, whose objective functions belong to a special class of generalized convex functions, related to some notions introduced by Ky Fan (1953), Borwein (1974), and Luc and Schaible (1997).