

CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

This certificate is proudly presented to Lorand Gabriel Parajdi, Ph.D.

Babeş-Bolyai University, Romania

in recognition of his valuable academic contribution during his Erasmus+ Staff Mobility for Training at our university. In addition to his training program, he delivered an insightful seminar entitled:

"Mathematical Modeling and Dynamic Analysis of Chronic Myeloid Leukemia"

Organized by the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science, this session provided our faculty and students with significant perspectives on mathematical applications in oncology.
